Foreign float that standard sheet—
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

If the War is Prolonged there Must be Another Draft.

It is stated by the Springfield Republican that the expiration of the term of service of some 300,000 nine months troops will occur by the first of June next. If this is true, it is evident that the present congress should provide by law for raising a like number to fill their places.

We notice that there are two propositions for raising troops now before congress: One presented by Mr. Wilson in the senate, for the organization of the militia of the states, to be drilled and made ready for service, and subject to the order of the president, and sent to any part of the country to aid in its defense. We presume it is not expected that the entire time of the militia will be devoted to this preparation, but that the details of the measure are we have not learned. It appears to be a sort of a draft by companies or regiments. It may be doubted whether any such plan will be practicable. If we are to have a long war, and that now seems likely, some plan of obtaining men by draft or conscription will necessarily have to be adopted, as volunteers in sufficient numbers are not likely to be had.

The other proposition for raising men to which we allude, is that of Mr. Stevens, for enrolling and arming 150,000 persons of African descent. Doubtless, if this plan could be put in operation in a liberal spirit, by men who have faith in it, a large number of good soldiers can be raised in that way; but it is an experiment, and the nation cannot wait for the solution of untried schemes. There has been too much of that already. Men must be had to fight our battles, or the cause of the Union will be lost. A conscription or a draft seems to be the only alternative, at least for a portion of the force required, if the rebels are not subdued before the beginning of summer.

Now, do those who oppose the war; who discourage our armistice and sow dissensions in the ranks of our soldiers; who by their sympathy with the enemy and hostility to the friends of the Union; know that they are preparing the way for another draft? Every obstacle now thrown in the way of the prompt suppression of the rebellion increases the probability of another call for soldiers. We would have every prating politician in the country, who expends his breath in denouncing the government for its efforts to carry on the war, understand that he is laboring to procure for himself a ticket in the next draft! Don't delude yourself, my ardent friends, that there can be a settlement and a peace, without one side being whipped. The south refuses all terms and fights for independence, and the federal government cannot, if it were disposed, accept any such terms or make peace on so disgraceful a basis. The war cannot be stopped. It may, by our divisions, be transferred to our own soil, but it will continue until the rebels submit, make up your minds to that; and you may as well conclude, also, that if a draft is ordered it will be enforced, as the army in the field is in no temper to mince matters with the disloyalists at home. We think five Wisconsin regiments, now in service, would like no better job than to see to the draft in this state.

Let those who make it their daily business to oppose the war, either directly or indirectly, reflect that such conduct only prolongs the war, and makes another draft or conscription necessary, in which every man now at home, not legally exempt, must take his chances.

"Election of U. S. Senator in West Virginia."—The West Virginia legislature elected a senator on Friday to succeed Hon. W. T. Willey, whose term expires on the 4th of March next. Mr. Willey having negatively declined to be a candidate for reelection, the contest was quite spirited, and resulted in the choice of Judge Lemuel J. Brownlee, of Williamsburg, Eastern Virginia. In the senate the vote stood, L. J. Brownlee 9, David Lamb 2. In the house, two ballots were had. On the second Mr. Willey received 19, Mr. Brownlee 18. Total joint vote 49; necessary to a choice 25. Mr. Brownlee received 27, and was declared elected.

"Though a resident of East Virginia, the loyalty of Judge Brownlee was fully vouchsafed for."

In the Illinois legislature a majority of the members were elected on the platform of "the constitution as it is and the Union as it was." Already one of these members has offered resolutions for a national convention to change the constitution!

"Little Frank, who is much interested in stories of wild animals, being told that the lion always pauses before springing upon its prey, remarked: 'I like the lion best of all the animals, because he gives you time to pray before he eats you!'"—Portland Transcript.

It is a long time since the country has been chagrined and mortified at an exhibition of disgraceful and disorderly conduct in the senate. Ever since the exodus of the rebel senators there has been peace and courtesy in that body. On Tuesday evening, however, Sausbury of Delaware, one of the last remaining specimens of "the chivalry" in the senate, got drunk and gave a specimen of the plantation manners of "southern gentlemen" which had almost become obsolete in the halls of congress, but which he appears to possess in all the freshness of the original style of that article, as practiced by Wigfall and Bully Brooks. The occasion of the outbreak against decency by the Senator was the discussion of the bill to indemnify the President for suspending the writ of habeas corpus.

Upon this question, Mr. Sausbury made a long speech, in the course of which he was called to order several times. Finally, when censuring the course of the President, calling him an imbecile, and mentioning him by name, the Vice-President called him to order, and requested the Senator to take his seat.

Mr. Sausbury continuing, the Vice-President said, if the Senator did not take his seat, he would order the sergeant-at-arms to take him in charge.

Mr. Sausbury—Then the voice of freedom is not allowed in the senate. The Vice-President—The sergeant-at-arms will take the Senator in custody.

Mr. Sausbury—Thereupon taken out of the senate, displaying a revolver, which he took from his coat-pocket.

After a short time he came into the senate again and began to speak. Mr. Doolittle called him to order, on the ground that he had been called to order for contempt of the senate, and could not be allowed to go on without leave of the senate.

Mr. Sausbury—Does the Senator from Wisconsin say that I am in the contempt of any honorable man?

The Chair (Mr. Clark)—The Senator from Delaware will take his seat, as he is out of order.

Mr. Sausbury—Just as I please, or otherwise. ("Cries of 'Order!'")

The Chair—The Senator will take his seat, and the sergeant-at-arms will take him into custody.

After further discussion, Mr. Sausbury attempted to speak.

The Chair—The Senator will take his seat.

Mr. Sumner rose to a point of order, that the Senator from Delaware had been committed to the sergeant-at-arms, and he saw him on the floor.

Mr. Clark said the Senator was in custody of the sergeant-at-arms, and if he made further disturbance, would be removed from the senate.

Mr. Sausbury took his seat, shaking his fist and swearing at the sergeant-at-arms and Mr. Sumner.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28. In the senate, this morning, Mr. Clark offered a resolution that Mr. Sausbury be expelled from the senate for the latter's conduct yesterday.

Mr. Sausbury said: "I have not a word to say in reference to the merit or demerit of the resolution. I have no favor to ask. I will say no more. Let the senate act as the senate may think proper; I neither avow nor disavow what is charged. Let the proof be made to the senate and let the senate act according to its own judgment."

Let us suggest to our friends of the Gazette, that before sitting in judgment upon Senator Doolittle, they try the experiment of getting an endorsement at home, of their own course. We have been assured by those who profess to know the fact, that a large majority of the republicans of Rock county, as well as of the citizens of Janesville, utterly repudiate the Gazette's scurrilous treatment of Senator Doolittle.

We do know that the Gazette had no echo of its scurrilous in the Rock county delegation in the legislature.—Racine Advocate.

We have a right to sit in judgment upon the public conduct of Senator Doolittle, because we are among his constituents. His paid organ at Racine would, if it could, compel everybody to sanction the record of the Senator, whether in conscience they can do so or not. The narrow souls of its conductors cannot tolerate an honest difference of opinion, but see only personal enemies in those who dissent from the views of their liege lord. They are clausmen, and ought to wear a Doolittle badge or collar, like a serf of the old Saxons times, ready to attack all comers in behalf of their chief, whether right or wrong. Probably, when the Senator gets through with his chaffs, he will emancipate and colonize them at the public expense, and we trust it will be in some "tropical region," outside of a country of free speech and liberal ideas.

The persistent attempt made by the Advocate to cause the impression that we have treated Judge Doolittle with scurrilous is another evidence of its contracted and hide-bound notions. We have spoken freely of the Senator's votes and speeches, but never with scurrilous or personal abuse. We challenge the Advocate, or any of Senator Doolittle's friends, to prove this charge, if they can.

We are quite well aware that the people of Rock county do not countenance a mere personal attack upon Judge Doolittle, and they well know that none such has been made. We are gratified to know that our course is almost universally approved; we happen to have the means of knowing far better than the Advocate, and if they have heard anything different, it comes from those few, always found, who worship success, and make a merit of turning their backs upon former professions, hoping that "thrift may follow fawning."

Let us suggest to the Advocate that it makes an unnecessary display of its servility to its master. If the editor is in vassalage, there is no obligation to ostentatiously display its condition on all occasions. Something might occasionally be withheld for the sake of appearances.

Forer float that standard sheet—
Where breathes the low but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

If the War is prolonged there must be another draft.

It is stated by the Springfield Republican that the expiration of the term of service of some 300,000 nine months troops will occur by the first of June next. If this is true, it is evident that the present congress should provide by law for raising a like number to fill their places.

We notice that there are two propositions for raising troops now before congress: One presented by Mr. Wilson in the senate, for the organization of the militia of the states, to be drilled and made ready for service, and subject to the order of the president, and sent to any part of the country to aid in its defence. We presume it is not expected that the entire time of the militia will be devoted to this preparation, but that the details of the measure are we have not learned. It appears to be a sort of a draft by companies or regiments. It may be doubted whether any such plan will be practicable. If we are to have a long war, and that now seems likely, some plan of obtaining men by draft or conscription will necessarily have to be adopted, as volunteers in sufficient numbers are not likely to be had.

The other proposition for raising men to which we allude, is that of Mr. Stevens, for enrolling and arming 150,000 persons of African descent. Doubtless, if this plan could be put in operation in a liberal spirit, by men who have faith in it, a large number of good soldiers can be raised in that way; but it is an experiment, and the nation cannot wait for the solution of untried schemes. Every obstacle now thrown in the way of the prompt suppression of the rebellion increases the probability of another call for soldiers. We would have every prating breath in the country, who expends his breath in denouncing the government for its efforts to carry on the war, understand that he is laboring to procure for himself a ticket in the next draft? Don't delude yourself, my ardent friend, that there can be a settlement and a peace, without one side being whipped. The south refuses all terms and fights for independence, and the federal government cannot, if it were disposed, accept any such terms or make peace on so disgraceful a basis. The war cannot be stopped. It may, by our divisions, be transferred to our own soil, but it will continue until the rebels submit, make up your minds to that; and you may as well conclude, also, that if a draft is ordered it will be enforced, as the army in the field is in no temper to mince matters with the disloyalists at home. We think five Wisconsin regiments, now in service, would like no better job than to see to the draft in this state.

Let those who make it their daily business to oppose the war, either directly or indirectly, reflect that such conduct only prolongs the war, and makes another draft or conscription necessary, in which every man now at home, not legally exempt, must take his chances.

ELECTION OF U. S. SENATOR IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The West Virginia legislature elected a senator on Friday to succeed Hon. W. T. Willey, whose term expires on the 4th of March next. Mr. Willey having positively declined to be a candidate for reelection, the contest was quite spirited, and resulted in the choice of Judge Samuel J. Brown, of Williamsburg, Eastern Virginia. In the senate the vote stood, L. J. Brown 9, David L. B. 2. In the house, two ballots were cast. On the second Mr. Willey received 12; necessary to a choice 25. Mr. Brown received 27, and was declared elected.

Though a resident of East Virginia, the loyalty of Judge Brown was fully vouched for.

In the Illinois legislature a majority of the members were elected on the platform of "the constitution as it is and the Union as it was." Already one of these members has offered resolutions for a national convention to change the constitution!

Little Frank, who is much interested in stories of wild animals, being told that the lion always passes before springing upon its prey, remarked—"I like the lion best of all the animals, because he gives you time to say 'good bye' before he eats you!"—Portland Transcript.

"When I go shopping," said an old lady, "I always asks for what I wants, and if they have it, and it's suitable, and I feel inclined to take it, and it's cheap, and I can't get at any other place for less, I almost always take it, without chaffering about it all day as most people do."

A Rowdy Senator to be Expelled.

It is a long time since the country has been chagrined and mortified at an exhibition of disgraceful and disorderly conduct in the senate. Ever since the exodus of the rebel senators there has been peace and courtesy in that body. On Tuesday evening, however, Sausbury of Delaware, one of the last remaining specimens of "the chivalry" in the senate, got drunk and gave a specimen of the plantation manners of "southern gentleness," which had almost become obsolete in the halls of congress, but which he appears to possess in all the freshness of the original style of that article, as practiced by Wigfall and Bully Brooks. The occasion of the outbreak against decency by the Senator was the discussion of the bill to indemnify the President for suspending the writ of habeas corpus.

Upon this question, Mr. Sausbury made a long speech, in the course of which he was called to order several times. Finally, when censuring the course of the President, calling him an imbecile, and mentioning him by name, the Vice President called him to order, and requested the Senator to take his seat.

Mr. Sausbury continuing, the Vice President said, if the Senator did not take his seat, he should order the sergeant-at-arms to take him in charge.

Mr. Sausbury—Then the voice of freedom is not allowed in the senate.

The Vice President—The sergeant-at-arms will take the Senator in custody.

Mr. Sausbury was thereupon taken out of the senate, displaying a revolver, which he took from his pocket.

After a short time he came into the senate again and began to speak.

Mr. Doolittle called him to order, on the ground that he had been called to order for contempt of the senate, and could not be allowed to go on without leave of the senate.

Mr. Sausbury—Does the Senator from Wisconsin say that I am in the contempt of any honorable man?

The Chair (Mr. Clark)—The Senator from Delaware will take his seat, as he is out of order.

Mr. Sausbury—Just as I please, or otherwise. (Cries of "Order.")

The Chair—The Senator will take his seat, and the sergeant-at-arms will take him into custody.

After further discussion, Mr. Sausbury attempted to speak.

The Chair—The Senator will take his seat.

Mr. Sausbury—No, sir.

Mr. Sumner rose to a point of order, that the Senator from Delaware had been committed to the sergeant-at-arms, and he saw him on the floor.

The Chair said the Senator was in custody of the sergeant-at-arms, and if he made further disturbance, would be removed from the senate.

Mr. Sausbury took his seat, shaking his fist and swearing at the sergeant-at-arms and Mr. Sumner.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.

In the senate, this morning, Mr. Clark offered a resolution that Mr. Sausbury be expelled from the senate for the latter's conduct yesterday.

Mr. Sausbury said: "I have not a word to say in reference to the merit or demerit of the resolution. I have no favor to ask. I will say no more. Let the senate act as the senate may think proper; I neither avow nor disavow what is charged. Let the proof be made to the senate and let the senate act according to its own judgment."

Let us suggest to our friends of the Gazette, that before sitting in judgment upon Senator Doolittle, they try the experiment of getting an endorsement at home, of their own course. We have been assured by those who profess to know the fact, that a large majority of the republicans of Rock county, as well as of the citizens of Janesville, utterly repudiate the Gazette's scurrilous treatment of Senator Doolittle.

We do know that the Gazette has no sense of its scurrility in the Rock county delegation in the legislature.—Racine Advocate.

We have a right to sit in judgment upon the public conduct of Senator Doolittle, because we are among his constituents. His paid organ at Racine would, if it could, compel everybody to sanction the record of the Senator, whether in conscience they can do so or not. The narrow souls of its conductors cannot tolerate an honest difference of opinion, but see only personal enemies in those who dissent from the views of their high lord. They are clannish, and ought to wear a Doolittle badge or collar, like a serf of the old Saxon time, ready to attack all comers in behalf of their chief, whether right or wrong. Probably, when the Senator gets through with his chaffs, he will emancipate and colonize them at the public expense, and we trust it will be in some "tropical region" outside of a country of free speech and liberal ideas.

The persistent attempt made by the Advocate to cause the impression that we have treated Judge Doolittle with scurrility is another evidence of its contracted and hide-bound notions. We have spoken freely of the Senator's votes and speeches, but never with scurrility or personal abuse. We challenge the Advocate, or any of Senator Doolittle's friends, to prove this charge, if they can.

We are quite well aware that the people of Rock county would not countenance a mere personal attack upon Judge Doolittle, and they well know that none such has been made. We are gratified to know that our course is almost universally approved; we happen to have the means of knowing far better than the Advocate, and if they have heard anything different, it comes from those few, always found, who worship success, and make a merit of turning their backs upon former professions, hoping that "thrift may follow fawning."

Let us "suggest" to the Advocate that it makes an unnecessary display of its servility to its master. If the editor is in vassalage, there is no obligation to ostentatiously display its condition on all occasions. Something might occasionally be withheld for the sake of appearances.

TERNS AND TRUX.—The Louisville Journal says—"We have read Jeff, Davis' speech at Richmond. If Jeff and the Devil were to swap places, hell would gain in malignity what it lost in talent."

Seventy-five of those Boston "Paritans" who are so cordially hated in all parts of the country, have recently donated $9,114 for the sick and wounded soldiers in the west. It has been forwarded to the Western Sanitary Association located at St. Louis.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
Camp near Falmouth, Jan. 29, 1863.

The following has just been published to the army:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
Camp near Falmouth, Jan. 29, 1863.

General Order No. 1.

By direction of the President of the United States, the undersigned has assumed command of the army of the Potomac.

He enters upon the discharge of the duties imposed by this trust, with a just appreciation of their responsibility. Since the formation of this army, he has been identified with its history. He has shared with you its glories and reverses, with no other desire than that these relations might remain unchanged until its destiny should be accomplished. In the record of your achievements there is much to be proud of, and with the blessing of God we will contribute something to the renown of our arms and the success of our cause.

To secure these ends your commander will require the cheerful and zealous co-operation of every officer and soldier in this army. In equipment, intelligence and valor the enemy is our inferior. Let us never hesitate to give him battle whenever we can find him.

The undersigned only gives expression to the feelings of this army when he conveys to our late commander, Major General Burnside, the most cordial good wishes for his future.

My staff will be announced as soon as organized.

JOSEPH HOOKER,
Major General Commanding Army of Potomac.

The only movement to-day is a change of locality for headquarters.

Main is falling; wind southwest; temperature mild.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.

Special to Chicago Tribune.

Cameron will soon resign, and C. M. Clay will return to Russia—a promise that he should do so, when Cameron resigned, having been made by the President months ago. Mr. Cameron asked the war department to-day to assign him to the command of an African brigade. He will give his testimony before the corruption investigating committee at Harrisburg to-morrow, and it is said will pronounce Boyer's twenty-five thousand dollar story an unmitigated falsehood.

Gen. Hooker has named Gen. Butterfield for his chief of staff.

Mr. Conway's speech in the house, to-day, denouncing Mr. Lincoln and prophesying the success of the pro-slavery democracy at the next presidential election, was an effort of remarkable power and force, and commands universal attention, members from all parts of the house clustering around him.

It is said that the radical anti-slavery grounds, and was merciless in exposing the short-comings of the administration.

The fact that Lovejoy objected to allowing him extra time to finish his speech is a good indication of the feeling the republicans as a party entertained as to the policy of saying such a thing, or as to the tendency of his teachings. The speech, however, will challenge general attention as a production of remarkable vigor. The three marked points of the speech were: Conquest impossible, compromise undesirable, separation inevitable.

Mr. Shellbarger, of Ohio, made an eloquent speech on the general relations of the republican and democratic parties on the war and the crisis. It has stirred up peace democrats, like Allen of Illinois and Vallandigham, dreadfully. It is regarded as one of the strongest defenses of the republican party yet made this session.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held to-night in Turner's Hall to ratify the President's emancipation proclamation. Speeches were made and resolutions adopted approving of the President's action.

Fayetteville, Ark., Jan. 28.

An enthusiastic Union demonstration occurred here, yesterday. Over 1000 loyal citizens of Arkansas were present, speeches were made by Dr. Johnson, a prominent Union refugee, Col. Bishop, of the 1st Arkansas cavalry, and others. Fifteen home guard companies were organized and wished to be accepted as Arkansas militia.

Hundreds of citizens signed a petition to congress to order an election of a member of congress from this state. All citizens having arms in their possession have given them up for defense of their homes, and non-sentiment daily growing stronger in this section.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, 29.

A Havana letter of the 24th states that the pirate Florida arrived on the 21st from Mobile coaled during the night and sailed on the 22d on a cruise. She chased a bark from Portland but the bark escaped. The pirate then captured and burned the brig Windward from Manzanilla four miles from the shore. The cargo of molasses belonged to a Spanish merchant. On the 23d, off Cardenas, captured and burned the brig Cordana, of Maine she was burned one mile from the shore. Soon after she captured and destroyed two more brigs. A schooner arrived at Havana reports that the pirate was last seen with the British flag, steering for the Bahamas.

The U. S. mail steamer Kearney returned to Havana, on the 23d, having been fired into by a Spanish man-of-war. The American consul ordered the Kearney to proceed, and the gunboat Onondaga to accompany her. The Kearney had the American flag flying when fired into, and had mails and the government dispatches.

The gunboat Wachusett arrived at Havana on the evening of the 23d, 12 hours after the pirate left, but coaled and left immediately in pursuit of the pirate. The rebels in Havana are in high glee, ex-Confederate Helm, secession agent, holds receptions every week. Mayor Wood's daughter was present at the last one.

Two vessels with cotton arrived on the 23d. The Florida is commanded by J. N. Maffit formerly of the United States Navy.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.

Four more active barks better—7,300, 7,400 extra stave, 7,500 7.75 R. O. Wheat, small receipts, quiet, and a shade firmer—1.45 1.53 Chicago spring, 1.54 1.59 midwest chub, 1.61 1.67 red western. Corn 1.00 better—91 1/2. Pork firm. Whiskey firm, 53 1/2.

Stocks unsettled, lower, and closing heavy. Gold 53 1/2.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 29.

In the court of quarter sessions, Judge Ludlow requested the grand jury to lay their business aside, until the authority of the state had been vindicated, directing the grand jury to hold consultation and take action on the arrest of Mr. Boileau, proprietor of the Evening Journal and closing his establishment, call before them all concerned, that they may be asked under what authority they acted, and why he, Boileau, was removed from the state.

The Judge stated that he acted on his own authority in this matter, without consulting brother judges.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.

The caucus spent the greater portion of last night investigating corruption charges—no vote.

Only those who have thoughts like lightning deserve to have a voice like thunder to utter them.

The building in which the boiler was located was entirely destroyed.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.

The Times, editorially, gives currency to a statement that Mr. Greeley has entered into personal negotiations with M. Mercier for the promotion of French intervention.

The Times says: Unless we have been misinformed, and we are open to correction on this point, Mr. Greeley has held personal interviews with the French minister and has written him letters, assuring him that the people are tired of the war; that they desire peace above all things, and that they are ready to welcome the intervention of the French emperor, or any disinterested European power, for the adjustment of the controversy between the government and the rebel states. He had furthermore been told that he has tolerated if not opened a correspondence on this subject with Mr. Vallandigham, of Ohio, with a view to co-operate in some plan of mediation as the most feasible plan of putting an end to the present war.

NEW YORK, 29.

Tribune's special.—The Washington dispatch states that Gen. Burnside, yesterday, informally tendered his resignation as an officer of the army to the President, but Mr. Lincoln declined to receive it, remarking that he had other fish for him to fry.

Burnside rejoined that he hoped to be set to work at once. He would willingly accept any command, he cared not how small, but he was extremely reluctant to wear a major general's star, and draw a major general's pay while doing nothing to earn his honors or his money.

The Herald has the following: Washington Jan. 28. We have received from headquarters of the cavalry brigade at Fairfax Court House the following information, dated January 27th, 6 p. m.:

Last night our pickets at Chantilly were driven by a detachment of Stuart's rebel cavalry. Col. P. Wyndham, commanding, immediately started with 200 men of the 2d and 3d regiments, in pursuit of the enemy. After pursuing them at a rapid rate 20 miles he came up with them at Middleburg. Maj. Hammond of the 5th New York cavalry had the advance and fell upon their rear with great celerity, and after a brilliant skirmish he succeeded in capturing 26 of them and scattering the others in all directions. We also captured several head of fine cattle.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.

Richmond papers of the 23d contain the following intelligence:

There are various rumors in circulation in regard to the affairs on the coast of North Carolina, but nothing reliable as to operations of the enemy at Newbern. It is not thought, however, that any forward movement has yet been made. The weather for several days along the coast has been exceedingly unfavorable to an advance.

There was an expedition went
From Fort Henry we were sent
To skirmish through the wood and brush,
To fog the Rebels and search.

Chorus—Will you go hear, will you go hear,
Will you go hear this Goose-Quill Band?
Repeat.

We hear no music on the way,
The drummer and fife would not play.
We said we would have some at hand,
So we got up this Goose-Quill Band.

Chorus.
To Wagner's Land we were sent,
On Napier's track we did hunt,
And when we landed there shore,
This Goose-Quill Band began to roar.

Chorus.
Then next to Camden we did go,
To give this Goose-Quill Band a show,
And as we played along the shore,
A singing crowd we there did meet.

Chorus.
Next night our camp was in the wood,
The boys were wailing, the chickens were good,
Next morn we started on our way—
This Goose-Quill Band began to play.

Chorus.
We went to a place, 'twas called Buck-Port,
But found their whiskey had run short;
And then our comrades turned around,
And left old Napier safe and sound.

Chorus.
Then next to the Sandy we did go,
But there we found we had no show;
And we were obliged to turn around,
Because no rebels could be found.

Chorus.
Next night we camped at the Railroad Run,
And were told no yanking should be done.
Next morn we each held in our hand,
A brand new quilt for this Goose-Quill Band.

Chorus.
Next night we camped upon a hill,
'Twas Christmas day and all was still,
The boys at playing great in sleep—
Our camp was filled with poultry and sheep.

Chorus.
Next morn we went to Tennessee,
On board the old steam boat went we,
We soon before the bar did stand,
A blowing on this Goose-Quill Band.

Chorus.
'Twas there we heard a doleful tale,
Which to the captain and watch befel—
As they upon the shore did stand,
There were gobbled up by a rebel band.

Chorus.
And now those things are among the past,
I wonder how long this war will last;
We'll have to march and skirmish and drill,
Till Gabriel blows his old Goose-Quill.

Chorus.
Lecture.
Mr. J. B. Tupper of the 4th Wis. regiment, and late from Gen. Butler's division New Orleans, will speak at Leppin's Hall, on Friday evening Jan. 30th. Subject—Destiny of our Nation. Speaking to commence at 7 1/2 o'clock. A small admission fee of fifteen cents will be charged to defray expenses.

LARGE HOGS.—James Donnet of Milton sold to Norton & Co. to day five hogs which averaged 550 lbs., one of them weighed 609 lbs. He received $4.85 per cwt.

LAST LOSS.—On the 26th inst in this city thirty dollars, one twenty dollar Treasury note, the balance in small bills Wisconsin money. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving the same at this office.

The pompous epitaph of a close fist citizen closed with the following passage of Scripture: "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord." "Dat may be," soliloquized Sambo, "bat when dat man died, de Lord didn't owe him a red cent."

50,000 lbs. of Wool Wanted!

at the

New Woolen Factory

F. A. WHEELER & SONS.

This splendid establishment, situated on Main St., a few doors north of the Excelsior Hotel, is now in successful operation. The Machine is New and of the best quality. We have therefore prepared to manufacture a kind of Cashmere or a pound of Stocking Yarn for

Two and a half Pounds of Wool, or 14 lbs. of wool and three foundations for manufacturing.

FLANNELS AT THE SAME RATES, according to the amount of wool required to make them. Wool Carding and Cloth Dressing Done on Short Notice.

Those having Fine Wool to be carded into rolls should have it

Cleaned at the Factory, as our customers are better calculated to do it well. Our price for cleaning is one cent per pound. It is very essential to have wool in the best condition, as it affects the card and produces poor rolls. Our carding machine is the best that could be obtained, and cannot fail to make a fine roll. We would invite all who wish to see good machinery or want good cloth, to give us a call. Also, would say to merchants who wish to obtain our cloth, that it would be their interest to buy wool and get it manufactured, and by so doing, get a good article that they can recommend to their customers.

A good supply of Cloth Constantly on Hand, which will be sold cheap for cash or on exchange for wool to shew.

We will ship at a distance and send the wool by railroad or express, with directions, and it will be promptly attended to. Those coming from a distance, with wool to be manufactured, will be kept over night.

FREE OF CHARGE.

We are prepared to make

Plain and Fancy Cassimeres, CHECKED FLANNELS, &c.

INDIGO DYED CASSIMERES, Stocking Yarn and Rolls.

And finally, most kinds of cloth and yarn that may be wanted.

We have also made arrangements with a first rate

FANCY DRESS, who will attend to the dyeing of all kinds of silk and cotton goods.

A Cough, Cold, or an Irritated Throat.

Followed by Bronchitis, results in serious Pulmonary and Bronchial affections, sometimes incurable.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES reach directly the inflamed parts and give almost instant relief. In Bronchitis, Asthma, and Croup they are beneficial. The good effects resulting from the use of the Troches, and their extended use, has caused them to be counterfeited. Be sure to guard against worthless imitations. Obtain only the genuine Brown's Bronchial Troches which have proved their efficacy by a test of many years. Public Dealers and Druggists should use the Troches. Military Officers and Soldiers who over-tax the voice and are exposed to sudden changes, should have them. Sold everywhere at 25 cents per box. J. A. D. W. 301

The Jessup Grain Drill!

Improved and Made by

R. J. RICHARDSON.

THIS drill which the Richardson Drill gave in 1891 has induced me to Make Double the Number for 1892.

The principle of the Drill is all that was at first claimed for it. The experience of 1892 enables me to make them just

Adapted to the Peculiarities of this Soil, which is very different to all.

More than three hundred of these drills were used in this vicinity last spring, and it is universally conceded that the Richardson Drill is in the quantity of Seed Sown per Acre, and that it is easily adjusted to any quality of seed. It is also conceded that the Richardson Drill is the

PERFECTLY ACCURATE

Lightest Draft and the Easiest for the Team

any Drill yet introduced.

The drills of 1892 are really changeable from double to single rank. The principle is longer, sharper and heavier than three of 1891, which render them better adapted to the hard and crusty soil of early fall plowing.

Notwithstanding the Large Advance on Material

we have concluded to offer our drills at the SAME PRICE.

as in 1892, which is as follows: 6 to 10, $75; 10 to 12, $85; 12 to 14, $95; 14 to 16, $105; 16 to 18, $115; 18 to 20, $125; 20 to 22, $135; 22 to 24, $145; 24 to 26, $155; 26 to 28, $165; 28 to 30, $175; 30 to 32, $185; 32 to 34, $195; 34 to 36, $205; 36 to 38, $215; 38 to 40, $225; 40 to 42, $235; 42 to 44, $245; 44 to 46, $255; 46 to 48, $265; 48 to 50, $275; 50 to 52, $285; 52 to 54, $295; 54 to 56, $305; 56 to 58, $315; 58 to 60, $325; 60 to 62, $335; 62 to 64, $345; 64 to 66, $355; 66 to 68, $365; 68 to 70, $375; 70 to 72, $385; 72 to 74, $395; 74 to 76, $405; 76 to 78, $415; 78 to 80, $425; 80 to 82, $435; 82 to 84, $445; 84 to 86, $455; 86 to 88, $465; 88 to 90, $475; 90 to 92, $485; 92 to 94, $495; 94 to 96, $505; 96 to 98, $515; 98 to 100, $525; 100 to 102, $535; 102 to 104, $545; 104 to 106, $555; 106 to 108, $565; 108 to 110, $575; 110 to 112, $585; 112 to 114, $595; 114 to 116, $605; 116 to 118, $615; 118 to 120, $625; 120 to 122, $635; 122 to 124, $645; 124 to 126, $655; 126 to 128, $665; 128 to 130, $675; 130 to 132, $685; 132 to 134, $695; 134 to 136, $705; 136 to 138, $715; 138 to 140, $725; 140 to 142, $735; 142 to 144, $745; 144 to 146, $755; 146 to 148, $765; 148 to 150, $775; 150 to 152, $785; 152 to 154, $795; 154 to 156, $805; 156 to 158, $815; 158 to 160, $825; 160 to 162, $835; 162 to 164, $845; 164 to 166, $855; 166 to 168, $865; 168 to 170, $875; 170 to 172, $885; 172 to 174, $895; 174 to 176, $905; 176 to 178, $915; 178 to 180, $925; 180 to 182, $935; 182 to 184, $945; 184 to 186, $955; 186 to 188, $965; 188 to 190, $975; 190 to 192, $985; 192 to 194, $995; 194 to 196, $1005; 196 to 198, $1015; 198 to 200, $1025; 200 to 202, $1035; 202 to 204, $1045; 204 to 206, $1055; 206 to 208, $1065; 208 to 210, $1075; 210 to 212, $1085; 212 to 214, $1095; 214 to 216, $1105; 216 to 218, $1115; 218 to 220, $1125; 220 to 222, $1135; 222 to 224, $1145; 224 to 226, $1155; 226 to 228, $1165; 228 to 230, $1175; 230 to 232, $1185; 232 to 234, $1195; 234 to 236, $1205; 236 to 238, $1215; 238 to 240, $1225; 240 to 242, $1235; 242 to 244, $1245; 244 to 246, $1255; 246 to 248, $1265; 248 to 250, $1275; 250 to 252, $1285; 252 to 254, $1295; 254 to 256, $1305; 256 to 258, $1315; 258 to 260, $1325; 260 to 262, $1335; 262 to 264, $1345; 264 to 266, $1355; 266 to 268, $1365; 268 to 270, $1375; 270 to 272, $1385; 272 to 274, $1395; 274 to 276, $1405; 276 to 278, $1415; 278 to 280, $1425
